

Itinerary

Saturday 3rd September

Arrive into Hawaii and be escorted to your private coach and transfer to the Sheraton Waikiki hotel.

Time to relax, unpack and settle in, then for our special Hawaiian Welcome Dinner.

Dinner tonight will be overlooking the magnificent Waikiki beach, you'll be greeted with a Mai Tai cocktail and enjoy dinner while listening to the group playing some local Hawaiian music along with some traditional hula dancers and star entertainment.

Sunday 4th September

A day to yourself to relax and soak up the sun, or perhaps you'd like to take a trolley bus to Ala Mona, a major shopping complex with lots of shops and American food outlets – there's always something new here.

Monday 5th September

A trip to Pearl Harbour today, we'll leave early to try and avoid the crowds and the queues. Pearl Harbour has been totally re designed so even if you've been before it'll be worth another visit. The coach will take you on a tour of the city and point out the sights on the way back to the hotel.

Choice of activity for the afternoon, why not try your skills at paddle boarding - not as easy as it looks.

Tuesday 6th September

A free morning then we'll get together around lunch time for the trip out to the Polynesian Cultural Centre, visit the native villages, see the Long Canoe Pageant, participant in lots of native cultural activities, there's fun and something for everyone here, visit the Imax theatre and then enjoy an authentic luau dinner while watching the spectacular Polynesian night show.

Wednesday 7th September

The day is yours to enjoy as you wish, choice of activity for the day - take a walk to the top of Diamond Head for spectacular views over Honolulu.

Dine around tonight to try out some of the special local dishes.

Thursday 8th September

The day the girls have been waiting for – a trip to the outlet stores, no one can resist a bargain and there are lots to find here, then if you're not all shopped out why not stop off at Hilo Hatties for all those Hawaiian gifts. Choice of activity for the afternoon - try your hand at lei making a skill anyone can learn.

Friday 9th September

Time to make sure you have bought all the souvenirs you need, why not take a visit to the Market Place, you're sure to find what you want here, and then maybe a relax with a cocktail under the banyan tree at the Moana Hotel or why not try the delicious afternoon tea served on the veranda.

Choice of activity for the day – learn to hula dance – not just for the girls – fun for the guys too!

Dinner tonight will be a relaxed evening around the spectacular pool area, the Helumoa Playground, at Sheraton Waikiki, sit back and listen to the local trio playing some island music and watch the sun set over the Pacific while enjoying a sumptuous barbeque dinner. Perhaps you could show off your new hula dancing skills!

Saturday 10th September

Time to head home today.
